FOREWARD

This is the 27th volume of the Yearbook of Original Free Will Baptists. It contains written records of the meetings of the convention, conferences, ministries, and auxiliaries that make up the Convention of Original Free Will Baptists. It also includes directories of the ministers, churches, and ministries of the denomination. This Yearbook, used in conjunction with the 2001-2002 Annual Report Book, provides a comprehensive record of the work of the Convention of Original Free Will Baptists. It is an invaluable resource for those needing access to the information provided in the directories and for anyone interested in the history of our denomination.

A word of heartfelt thanks goes to Mrs. Andrea Cox who toiled countless hours in putting together the information found in this Yearbook. Thanks also goes to the church clerks and treasurers who provided much of the information contained herein.

Whereas David W. Hansley dedicated himself to the work of his church, ultimately serving 37 Free Will Baptist churches in 15 North Carolina counties from 1931 to 1988, including Wake, Durham, Franklin, Orange, Johnston, Sampson, Pitt, Wilson, Greene, Wayne, Lenoir, Onslow, Craven, Carteret and Tyrrell counties; and,

Whereas David W. Hansley was elected in September, 1949, to serve as chairman and treasurer of the Board of Christian Education of the North Carolina Convention of Original Free Will Baptists, the third-oldest religious body in the state; and,

Whereas on September 12, 1951, David W. Hansley presented on behalf of the Board of Christian Education (including the Reverend S.A. Smith of Beulaville, the Reverend R.H. Jackson of Carteret County, and D.B. Sasser of Wilson) to that convention, meeting at White Oak Church in Bladenboro, a resolution to establish and sponsor an institution of Christian higher education in North Carolina, and did win the adoption of the resolution; and,

Whereas David W. Hansley provided leadership in securing a charter on behalf of the convention and its Board of Christian Education from Secretary of State Thad Eure on November 27, 1951, and the institution originally known as Mount Allen Junior College was opened in 1952 and did operate for its first year at Cragmont Assembly, near Black Mountain, under the direction of President Lloyd Vernon; and,

Whereas David W. Hansley was elected the chairman of the college's first Board of Directors in September, 1953, when the college was relocated to the town of Mount Olive, in Wayne County, nearer to the center of Free Will Baptist Church constituency, the board having arranged to purchase, and begun renovation of, the former Mount Olive Grammar School for use as its campus; and,

Whereas David W. Hansley, representing that board, chose the Reverend W. Burkett Raper to serve as president in August 1954, and in September opened the college with its first convocation before an enrollment of twenty-two students in programs of arts, sciences, and business; and,

Whereas David W. Hansley served as chairman of the Mount Olive Junior College Board of Trustees from 1953 to 1963, during which time the college earned accreditation from the North Carolina College Conference in 1958 and the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools in 1960; and,

Whereas David W. Hansley continued to serve on the Board of Trustees until 1970, during which time the college expanded, with the support of the Free Will Baptist Church, Dr. C.C. Henderson and other Mount Olive civic leaders and citizens, from the original

Convention

Grammar School building to a core of buildings on a 100-acre campus along what is now Highway U.S. 117 bypass; and,

Whereas David W. Hansley remained an ardent supporter of Mount Olive College, and did see the fruition of his vision, when Mount Olive College accomplished the transition from a junior to a senior college, and when Hansley personally awarded the first baccalaureate degree to Calvin Heath, a graduate of the college's ministerial program, in May, 1986; and,

Whereas David W. Hansley died on April 24, 1989, at the age of 79, and was honored in a memorial service held on the campus of Mount Olive College, and continues to be remembered for his leadership in helping to found the college and through the David W. and Elizabeth C. Hansley Endowed Fund on that campus; and,

Whereas Mount Olive College is recognized and accredited by the Commission on Colleges of the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools, and offers opportunities for higher education at its 138-acre main campus in Mount Olive, and at Seymour Johnson Air Force Base in Goldsboro, and through distance-learning centers in New Bern, Wilmington, and Research Triangle Park; and,

Whereas on September 12, 2001, the Convention of Original Free Will Baptists, meeting at College Hall on the campus of Mount Olive College, will celebrate the founding of the only college chartered and accredited in North Carolina which is sponsored by that body, on its fiftieth anniversary;

NOW, THEREFORE, be it resolved by the Convention of Original Free Will Baptists concurring:

SECTION 1. That the Convention honors the Reverend David W. Hansley as a founder and trustee of Mount Olive College.

SECTION 2. That the Secretary of the Convention transmits a copy of this resolution to the chairman of the Mount Olive College Board of Trustees, and to the Free Will Baptist Historical Collection at Mount Olive College.

PROCEEDINGS

The One Hundred and Forty Seventh Session of the Cape Fear Conference of Original Free Will Baptist convened at Covenant FWB Mission, Hope Mills, N.C., on November 13, 2001.

The session was called to order by the moderator, Rev. Fred Baker. The congregation sang "Stand Up, Stand Up for Jesus" led by song leader Peyton Lee. Scripture and prayer were offered by Scott Satterfield, licensed minister from Pleasant Grove Free Will Baptist Church. He based his devotional on Proverbs 11:24-25. We were welcomed to the church by the Rev. James Corbett, the pastor of Covenant Mission, the host church. The response was given by Rev. Jesse Fulcher.

The rules of the Credentials Committee were explained by Rev. James Corbett as adopted by the One Hundred and Fourteenth Session of the Conference. These rules state: "In all future sessions of the Cape Fear Conference, the Credentials Committee shall be instructed to issue a badge of identification to all duly registered ministers, delegates, and visitors, and that no person be allowed to vote who does not properly display said badge. It is understood that visitors shall be granted all rights and privileges except the right to vote. It shall be the duty of the Credentials Committee to explain the registration at the opening of the Cape Fear Conference."

The roll call of the officers, ministers, standing boards, and churches was called out by the clerk. The moderator recognized the visitors and welcomed them to the conference.

The following temporary committees were appointed to serve during the session with the first person named serving as chairman of each committee:

Credentials Committee: James Corbett, Jesse Fulcher

Temperance/Resolutions Committee: Jim Bogel, Charlie Carroll, Ken Dabbs

Nominating Committee: Sam Weeks, Joe Balance, Otis Hamm

Obituary Committee: Dean Kennedy, Billy Nowell, Doug Seymour

The moderator asked the congregation if there were any ministers who wanted to join the conference. Rev. Jerry Stephenson from Vandora Springs FWB Church and Rev. Jeff Scarbrough joined. Both were given the right hand of fellowship and welcomed into the conference by the moderator. Rev. Fred Baker then gave his remarks to the conference. He spoke from I Peter 3:15. He challenged us to love one another and to uphold the Word of God. In this time of war and terror it is the best time to witness to people about our Lord. There are a lot of questions about the future and we have the greatest opportunity to tell others of Christ that we have ever had. The Lord will give us the right words to say if we will ask Him to. Seize the moment.

We then were introduced to the representatives of the Ministries that were present and allowed them to speak on behalf of each organization. Those present were Dr. Bobby Taylor, Children's Home; Mary Dudley, Sunday School Ministry and Retirement Homes; Rev. Harold Jones, Foreign Missions; Rev. Frank Harrison, Mount Olive College; Rev. Al Markuson, Home Missions; Rev. Bryant Hines, Cragmont Assembly. Rev. Buddy Sasser, then spoke to us for The Minister's Retirement Board, Church Finance, and FWB Press. He also spoke to us on the work of the Convention of Original Free Will Baptist. The reports were enjoyed by all present.

We were then given a small break asking everyone to come back into the sanctuary when they began to hear the piano music, this will signal the start of our worship time. Our worship time began with the singing "Marching to Zion." The offering was taken and prayer was offered for God's blessings by Rev. Ken Dabbs. The moderator then turned the service over to the host church for special singing. Rev. Fred Baker then introduced Rev. Dennis Pollock, the speaker for the conference. Rev. Pollock spoke from John 3:14-15. He spoke to us on the subject, "Why Keep Preaching?" Many times pastors feel that their preaching is in vain and no one is responding. He encouraged all pastors to keep preaching using the example that Moses gave when he held a serpent so that all who had been bitten by the other serpents could be kept alive. He said that there were 5 reasons why this serpent and Jesus had to be lifted up: 1) Need - the people needed relief from the poisonous snakes, the world needs the gospel message more than ever, 2) To show grace - God wanted to let the Israelites know He was still with them, We still need to know that we must show God's grace to all people, 3) He wanted to show them He was in control. They had to trust God for healing, we need to still trust Him with our lives, 4) He wanted to teach them to use their faith - God asked them to use their faith and look upon the serpent and use their faith and they would be healed. We must keep the faith, 5) He is available to all. God loves all people. Christ died for all. Keep on preaching, look upon Jesus and live. He then closed his message in prayer.

Rev. James Corbett then gave instruction on lunch and closed us in prayer giving the blessing for the meal as he prayed.

AFTERNOON SESSION

The afternoon session began with singing, "He Keeps Me Singing," by song leader Peyton Lee. Rev. Ken Dabbs then lead the group in our devotional, he is pastor of Riverside FWB Church. He used Proverbs 13:17 as his text, sharing with us that we must be devoted to God's word. We must be devoted to Christ. We must trust God with all our heart, soul and mind. He closed his devotional in prayer. The moderator then asked for us to share in a special time of prayer for the requests that had been given him and for our country and the war we are involved in. The prayer was lead by Rev. Roy Clifton.

The moderator then asked for the reports of all Standing Boards of the Conference:

Executive Committee - Rev. Phillip Boykin (See Report)

Ordaining Council - Rev. Frank Harrison (See Report)

Cape Fear Ministers - Rev. Roy Clifton (See Report)

Cape Fear Women's Auxiliary - Martha Parsons (See Report)

Cape Fear Youth and Board of Education - Martha Parsons (See Report)

The reports of the temporary committees were given as follows:

Temperance/Resolutions - Rev. Jim Bogel (See Report)

Credentials - Rev. James Corbett (See Report)

Obituary - Rev. Dean Kennedy (See Report)

Nominating Committee - Rev. Sam Weeks (See Report)

In our business session the moderator called for Old Business. There being none, we moved into New Business. The clerk then read the constitutional Article III the way it is now written and then the proposed change. A motion was made from the floor that we approve the change in the Constitution of the Cape Fear Conference (See the Change). It was voted upon and approved. A motion was then made and properly seconded that the Ordination Board change the policy on ordaining candidates who have passed all necessary steps to be ordained but they must be called to a church before they may be ordained. The reason for the change is that churches looking for pastors are asked to hire a minister only from the list of duly ordained pastors of OFWB. This policy could stop men who are not yet ordained from finding a church to pastor. The motion passed. The moderator put before the conference the work of Blended Fellowship, the mission church sponsored by the Cape Fear Conference. Before they could secure a loan on a new building the conference was asked to pledge support to this work for the next three years. A motion was then made and properly seconded that the Cape Fear Conference officially go on record as supporting with our finances and our prayers the work of Blended Fellowship for the next three years. The motion passed.

In our special offering we did receive enough money for the down payment but more was needed to get them through their lease of the property they now occupy. The moderator then asked any church who would commit to paying the monthly payment on this property for Blended Fellowship to come and tell the clerk who would record their intentions to pay either a part of or the entire monthly payment for them. There being no further New Business the moderator asked for the treasurers report. Dr. Sam Weeks gave the treasurers report (See Report). A motion was made and properly seconded to accept the report.

A motion was then made that all unfinished business be left to the Executive Committee and that we adjourn the meeting. That motion was properly seconded and approved. Closed in prayer by laying on of hands on Rev. Doug Seymour and his wife Melanie for the work at Blended Fellowship Mission. It was lead by Rev. Frank Harrison. The next Conference will be November 12, 2002 at Vandora Springs Free Will Baptist Church in Garner, N.C.

REPORT OF EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE

The Executive Committee of the Cape Fear Conference met with members of Covenant FWB Mission at Shady Grove FWB Church on November 14, 2000. All members were present.

The meeting was about the property at the former Genesis Mission. The building is being rented out by another church group but the Covenant group wants to sell the property. The group wants the conference to help them with the Home Missions Board and their claim to the property. The deed calls for the Home Missions group to have their names on the deed for 10 years and then the property will be totally theirs. The deed was dated 1986 so in 1996 the property should be theirs. They said that they were told by Home Missions that they could not sell the property so they want the conference to help in getting this issue settled. The pastor of Covenant is now the Reverend James Corbett and they want to move forward with their church.

The Moderator told the group that he and the secretary will meet with the Reverend Al Markuson, the Director of Home Missions and then get back to the church. After the money from the sell of Genesis, Covenant would like to pay off the lean on their property that is now $25,000. The meeting was then closed in prayer by Jesse Caton.

The Clerk met with Al Markuson, Director of Home Missions on Thursday, December 14, 2000 at the Headquarters Building in Ayden. Rev. Markuson said that the group that is meeting at Covenant owns the property at Genesis. He stated that the deed that was drawn up has the names of the Trustee in the 80's and all of them now are gone. The only active trustee now is Frank Parsons.

Rev. Markuson stated that if and when the property is sold all the money will go to the group at Covenant. He stated that there is a church now meeting at the Genesis property. This group now pays rent and wants to buy the property and a price for the building was agreed upon. They went to the bank and a set of trustees signed a note for the loan. When the bank investigated the loan two of the three trustees had moved because of the military and the third trustee had lost his job. So the bank turned down the loan. Since then the church has voted in new trustees and they will try for a loan again soon. They still want to buy the property. Rev. Markuson stated that in 1997 or 1998 that the Covenant group asked Home Missions to be in charge of leasing or selling the property.

Rev. Markuson said that there is still a Genesis bank account open called the Genesis Fire Account. This account is open so that a check can be made at the time of the sale to Genesis. Rev. Markuson still has signature rights to this account but he pledged to the clerk that at the sale of the Genesis property he will sign over all the money to the Covenant group and close this account. With this understanding the clerk said he would take this information back and if any further questions are needed he would be back in touch with Rev. Markuson.

The Executive Committee of the Cape Fear Conference met at Lee's Chapel FWB Church on January 24, 2001. Present for the meeting were, Fred Baker, Roy Clifton, Sam Weeks, Phillip Boykin, and Jesse Caton. Rev. Caton opened the meeting in prayer. After some review of the minutes of the conference a motion was made and properly seconded to approve the minutes of the 2000 Cape Fear Conference as corrected. The motion passed. The minutes of the meeting with Covenant FWB Mission and Rev. Al Markuson were also read and upon proper motion and second they were approved. Dr. Sam Weeks gave the treasurer's report and it was approved as given.

A report was given on the property situation between Covenant FWB Mission and Home Missions on the sell of the former Genesis property. A March 1, 2001 deadline has been set for Home Missions to come up with some kind of an agreement on the church property or it will be handed over to the mission to sell as they see fit. The Executive Committee has set a meeting with Blended Fellowship and Haymount FWB Church for April 28, 2001 after the Union Meeting at West Clinton FWB church. This meeting will be a part of the proper review of the conference on the work of the mission.

The Executive Committee makes a suggestion to the Union that we continue the Camp Meeting/Revival for one of the Union Meetings. Possible September 30, 2001. We also want to suggest to the Union that a topic for one of the workshops they are planning may be, "How to Hire a Pastor".

The next scheduled meeting of the Executive Committee will be June 27, 2001 at Lee's Chapel. A motion was made and properly seconded to adjourn and the meeting was closed in prayer by Dr. Sam Weeks.

The Executive Committee of the Cape Fear Conference met at First FWB Church, Smithfield on April 23, 2001. Present for the meeting were, Fred Baker, Roy Clifton, Sam Weeks, Phillip Boykin, and Charlie Carroll. Rev. Baker opened the meeting in prayer. Rev. Al Markuson was asked to meet with the Executive Committee to discuss the proper procedures in helping a church in danger. Home Missions has such a program that must be agreed upon by 3/4 of the church in order to put this in place. The program is called The Harvest Covenant Program. It has Phase I for a church this is in trouble but needs guidance for growth. Phase II is for a church that is about to fold unless some drastic changes happen. The Home Missions Board will be the one who decides which Phase a church needs. These Phases are set up for one year and can be extended if needed. Every member that votes to participate in this program must sign a covenant with Home Missions in order for this to work. An agreement was met with Rev. Markuson that if our conference needed a combination of these two programs for a particular church that Home Missions would work with us.

The committee then met with Blended Fellowship and Haymount FWB Church. Rev. Doug Seymour and Rev. Dean Kennedy were present. Doug reported to the committee that the church has 41 active members now, 3 new converts so far in 2001, and they are paying their own bills and have no outstanding debt. They are experiencing growing pains and they are now using a donated bus for Sunday School space. Doug has a vision for this ministry to one day have a campus for the deaf. This will have camps, retreats and worship areas. This will not just be for the deaf but also for hearing parents of deaf children and deaf parents of hearing children. Doug had financial reports and a growth chart of the work. All is going well and we laid hands on Doug for the vision he has for his people.

The Executive Committee instructs the Board of Trustees to sign an agreement with the State of North Carolina giving the Department of Transportation the right to expand and pave a road running on property formerly owned by Anderson Creek FWB Church. This church no longer exists and the state needed the Board of Trustees approval. A motion was made and properly seconded that we see this action through.

The Executive Committee then discussed the issue of Ordaining Ministers only after a church has called them. We were informed that our conference is the only conference that requires this. A motion was made and properly seconded that in order to comply with the Statement of Faith and Discipline that governs our denomination, we suggest that the conference review this policy. The Statement of Faith states that churches hire men from the list of all duly ordained Original Free Will Baptist ministers. Thus a minister not yet ordained can be overlooked.

The next scheduled meeting of the Executive Committee will be May 8, 2001 at Lee's Chapel. A motion was made and properly seconded to adjourn and the meeting was closed in prayer by Dr. Sam Weeks.

The Cape Fear Executive Committee met on May 8, 2001 at Lee's Chapel FWB Church. Present at the meeting was Fred Baker, Roy Clifton, Phillip Boykin, Sam Weeks, and Jesse Caton. Rev. Caton opened the meeting in prayer. The moderator called for the reading of the minutes of our last meeting and the minutes were approved as read. A discussion then followed on the need to continue our meetings with Blended Fellowship, the mission church the conference is overseeing. The committee will meet with Blended Fellowship twice a year to give support and to encourage the work in Goldsboro.

The committee then discussed the situation at Riverside FWB Church. The church has asked the Executive Committee to help the church find a pastor and to it in its mission to unite the church. The Executive Committee had met with Rev. Al Markuson on programs that the Home Missions Department has for helping churches. The committee decided that if we could combine two different programs that Home Missions has and add some new agreements that the conference could come up with a Joint Covenant Agreement for Riverside. The committee then drew up a plan that was fair and reasonable. The agreement will put the church in the hands of the conference for at least one year. The church must compensate the pastor with one check designated as salary and a second separate check designated for travel. All financial responsibility will be on the church. A called business meeting will be held at Riverside FWB Church on May 17, 2001. At this meeting the Joint Covenant Agreement will be explained and voted upon by the church body. The Executive Committee will be there to answer any questions and to oversee the vote of the church. It was agreed that the job description for the Pastor/Director will be the same one on page 70 of The Statement of Faith and Discipline of Original Free Will Baptist. It was also agreed that we must get a 2/3rds majority vote of members present in order to put this plan into effect.

A motion was made by Jesse Caton and seconded by Sam Weeks that we present this agreement and that Ken Dabbs be appointed as Pastor/Director for this 12 month period. Also Rev. Roy Clifton will be appointed as Ken Dabbs overseer to give guidance and help to him. The motion passed.

At our next meeting on June 27, 2001 the committee will try and come up with a list of Widow and Widowers in our conference for the convention office. A motion was made by Roy Clifton and seconded by Sam Weeks that the honorarium for the clerk be increased to $300.00 a year. The motion was voted upon and approved. A motion was made by Jesse Caton and seconded by Phillip Boykin that the conference buy a file cabinet that will be kept at First FWB Church, Smithfield. This cabinet will hold the conference minutes and other information that the conference has. The motion passed. A motion was made by Sam Weeks and seconded by Roy Clifton to adjourn the meeting. It passed. The meeting was closed in prayer by Jesse Caton.

The Cape Fear Executive Committee met on May 17, 2001 at Riverside FWB Church. Present at the meeting was Fred Baker, Roy Clifton, Phillip Boykin, and Sam Weeks.

The moderator asked for a motion to appoint Rev. Fred Baker as the moderator for the rest of the meeting. Upon proper motion and seconded the motion to appoint Rev. Baker was approved. Rev. Baker explained the work the Executive Committee had done and a copy of the Joint Covenant Agreement was passed out to every member present. He then went over every point of the agreement. After he finished with the agreement he asked for any questions. After several questions were given and answered the moderator then called for a vote by the church body. Rev. Baker explained that the vote would be a secret ballot and a vote yes would be for the agreement as written and a vote no would be against.

The clerk was asked to record the tally of the votes. The rest of the Executive Committee members would receive the votes and count the votes. After the votes were taken up the count was as follows: With 30 members eligible to vote, 30 Yes, 0 No. The agreement was passed.

After receiving the vote a meeting was set up for May 31, 2001 with Riverside FWB church to introduce the new Pastor/Director for the church. The meeting was closed in prayer by Rev. Baker.

The Cape Fear Executive Committee met on May 28, 2001 at the home of Rev. Sam Weeks. Present at the meeting was Fred Baker, Roy Clifton, Phillip Boykin, Sam Weeks, Charlie Carroll, Jesse Caton and Ken Dabbs. Rev. Charlie Carroll opened the meeting in prayer.

This meeting was held to discuss with Ken the situation with Riverside FWB Church and to go over with him the Joint Covenant Agreement that he would be working under.

A meeting with Riverside was set up for May 31, 2001 to introduce Ken and his family to the church.

Ken was told that a quarterly report must be given to the Executive Committee and that same report will be given to the church and to Roy Clifton, his overseer. This report will include attendance, attitudes and growth in the church during that quarter. Any business that comes to the church must be given to the Pastor/Director at least two weeks in advance of the Business meeting. He was advised to study the Roberts Rules of Order, to try and unite the church, helping them to pull together, not separate. He will be backed by the conference and to use his overseer and this committee when he needs help. A motion was then made to adjourn. It met with a second and passed. Rev. Sam Weeks then closed the meeting in prayer.

The Cape Fear Executive Committee met on May 31, 2001 at Riverside FWB Church. Present at the meeting was Fred Baker, Roy Clifton, Phillip Boykin, Charlie Carroll, Jesse Caton, and Sam Weeks.

The moderator opened the meeting with the Hymn "Are You Washed?". After prayer requests the meeting was turned over to Rev. Fred Baker, Moderator of the Cape Fear Conference. Rev. Baker read from the 23rd Psalm urging the church to depend upon the good shepherd and He will guide the church. He asked the church to work together and love each other for the cause of Christ.

Rev. Baker then read a corrected version of the Joint Covenant Agreement. In the job description for the Pastor/Director a sentence had been left out. After reading the correction he notified the church that a copy of the agreement with everyone's signature was given to the clerk of their church. Rev. Baker then introduced their new Pastor/Director, Ken Dabbs along with his family: wife Linda and children, Luke, age 9 and Kelly, age 4. Rev. Baker also introduced Rev. Roy Clifton as Ken's overseer. The overseer will be Ken's partner in ministry and at the work at Riverside. If the overseer has any questions he will come to the Executive Committee for help.

After the introductions Ken and his family, along with Rev. Clifton, were asked to come forward and the whole body laid hands on them for God's guidance during the work that lay ahead of them. Rev. Baker prayed the Prayer of Dedication and all were asked to go to the fellowship hall for refreshments. Rev. Baker also announced that Ken would be ordained on June 10, 2001 at Vandora Springs FWB Church. The meeting was closed in prayer by Ken Dabbs.

The Cape Fear Executive Committee met on June 28, 2001 at Lee's Chapel. Present for the meeting were Fred Baker, Roy Clifton, Sam Weeks, Phillip Boykin, Jesse Caton, and Charlie Carroll. Moderator called the meeting to order and Charlie Carroll lead the meeting in prayer. The minutes from our last five meetings were read and approved.

Discussion on the work at Riverside and the selling on the Genesis Mission property. A motion was made by Sam Weeks and seconded by Roy Clifton that we send money to the Convention of OFWB for 16 delegates. This would be a total of $240.00 for 9 delegates from the Conference and 7 from the Union meeting. The motion passed. A motion was then made to send $260.00 to the Convention of OFWB as a contribution to the work of the Convention. Charlie Carroll made the motion and Jesse Caton seconded it and the motion passed. The total for both motions will be $500.00. A discussion followed on widows of ministers in the Cape Fear Conference to be reported to the Convention office. A discussion on the Cape Fear Conference which will be held on November 13, 2001 at Covenant Mission followed. The temporary committees and the program was planned. We also discussed the need to stagger the officers of the conference so that all the officers do not go off at the same time. The moderator and the clerk will meet to draw up a plan for officers by the time the conference meets.

After many prayer concerns Fred Baker closed the meeting in prayer.

The Cape Fear Executive Committee met on August 20, 2001 at Mount Olive College. Present for the meeting were Fred Baker, Roy Clifton, Sam Weeks, Phillip Boykin, Jesse Caton, Charlie Carroll, Frank Harrison, Dean Kennedy, Doug and Melanie Seymour, Otis Hamm, Peyton Lee, and Al Markuson. Moderator called the meeting to order and Frank Harrison lead the meeting in prayer.

The moderator then discussed the purpose for this joint meeting. He stated that Blended Fellowship was a mission located within the Cape Fear Conference in Goldsboro and it was a Daughter Church to Haymount FWB Church who is the Mother Church. He stated the work was growing and that they had a desire to be a ministry to deaf people and all people in their church and the community. The mission has already outgrown the property they now are renting and in order for their vision of ministry to come true they would need more room that is not available to them at this property. So the mission is now looking at property in Wayne County near the community of Pikeville. The pastor of Antioch FWB Church, Rev. Otis Hamm, was present so he could get information on this new mission and know that it is not a threat to the work of Antioch. Home Missions was present in order for them to understand what was happening and to give them an opportunity to become a partner in a joint Leadership Team for the mission, and give us guidelines on raising funds for this work.

Rev. Markuson was then given an opportunity to speak. Rev. Markuson stated that he wanted to find a way to join with the conference and the Mother Church but he was unsure how that could happen. He stated that Home Missions had a program called Basic Plus which was a Mother/Daughter type of program first started in 1985 but it did not allow for a joint Leadership Team. The executive committee then asked if Home Missions could somehow commission or recognize this mission without any financial help from Home Missions. Again Rev. Markuson stated that there was no such plan in Home Missions work that would do that. He suggested that Rev. Seymour fill out a Missionary Application Form and then the Home Missions Board would then discuss what they could do next. Rev. Markuson stated that he would be willing to take back to his board of directors this new information and see if there was anything they could do to help this new work. After this report the committee then laid down guidelines for Blended Fellowship when they receive monetary gifts: 1) If any church in the Cape Fear Conference wants to give to the work they are asked to go through the conference and then a check will be given to Blended Fellowship, 2) If any money comes to the mission outside the conference that it be recorded and listed as an offering and reported to the Mission Committee as such, 3) Internal contributions be reported as regular offering and listed in our regular report.

After much discussion a motion was made by Jesse Caton and seconded by Sam Weeks that Blended Fellowship make an offer to purchase the property in Wayne County. A ceiling of $165,000 was given to Rev. Seymour for the purchase price on the property. The motion passed. It was agreed that the property be deeded to the Cape Fear Conference, Haymount FWB Church, and Blended Fellowship Mission. It was also agreed that a special offering be taken up at the Revival/Camp Meeting to be held at Lee's Chapel on September 30, 2001. This offering will go toward the down payment on the property in Wayne County. Rev. Hamm was then asked if this mission moved to Pikeville will it be any problem for Antioch. He stated it would NOT and he welcomed this new ministry in the community. After discussion a motion was made and properly seconded that we adjourn. We were closed in prayer by Rev. Jesse Caton.

The Cape Fear Executive Committee met on September 25, 2001 at Mount Olive College with the Board of Home Missions at their request. Present for the meeting, Fred Baker, Roy Clifton, Sam Weeks, Phillip Boykin, Jesse Caton, Frank Harrison, Dean Kennedy, Doug and Melanie Seymour, Al Markuson and members of the Home Missions Board. Rev. Markuson called the meeting to order and Rev. Jacky Raper lead the meeting in prayer.

Rev. Markuson welcomed the group and stated the purpose for this meeting was to let the Home Missions Board hear what is happening at Blended Fellowship and see if there is any more information the board might need. Rev. Seymour, the pastor of Blended Fellowship Mission was given the opportunity to review the work of the mission. He handed out to all present a history and fact sheets on the mission.

Rev. Markuson stated the main road block is that there is no program where the conference and Mother Church can have any voice in the work of a mission. He stated that Home Missions had a program called Basic Plus which was a Mother/Daughter type of program first started in 1985 but it did not allow for a joint Leadership Team. He suggested that Rev. Seymour fill out a Missionary Application Form so he could go through the same process that other missionaries have. Rev. Markuson stated that he could not support the mission without the application being filled out. Rev. Seymour agreed to do this once he got an application. The conference asked if the Home Missions Board could support a mission with a joint committee with the Mother church and conference helping in the work of the mission. The board stated they do not have such a program but another joint meeting between the conference, Mother Church, Mission and Home Missions will be held to discuss creating such a program, possibly after the Cape Fear Conference meeting to work out a program where all parties could work together.

A suggestion was made that a program be created were a mission could become an associate member of Home Missions. This would be a Mother and Daughter program where Home Missions would not have any financial responsibilities but a joint voice in the work of a mission. The Home Missions Board agreed to have a meeting to work out the details for this possible program working with the conference the mission is a member of.

After much discussion Rev. Markuson agreed to send Rev. Seymour an application and he would complete it as soon as possible.

The Cape Fear Executive Committee met on September 25, 2001 at Mount Olive College. Present at the meeting was Fred Baker, Roy Clifton, Sam Weeks, Jesse Caton and Frank Harrison as proxy for Phillip Boykin. Rev. Caton opened the meeting in prayer. The moderator called the meeting to order. The purpose of this meeting was to come up with some thoughts on fundraising activities for Blended Fellowship. The following are the agreed upon activities:

- 1) The Blended Fellowship newsletter to be distributed Sunday Night at the Revival/Camp Meeting service at Lee's Chapel September 30, 2001.
- 2) Rev. Baker, moderator, will explain what is happening at the mission and why the offering will be so important at the September 30th meeting.
- 3) A letter and information will be sent to all pastors and church clerks of the conference regarding the work of Blended Fellowship, urging a special offering for the property for Blended Fellowship by the Conference Meeting on November 13, 2001.
- 4) The first Sunday in November be designated for a special offering from all the churches of the Cape Fear Conference to go toward the down payment for the property.
- 5) All pastors of churches in the Cape Fear Conference are to be contacted in regards to the special offering by the Executive Committee.

Rev. Clifton then gave a report on Riverside. Rev. Dabbs gave his report and things are going very well. After his report a motion was made to dismiss and it was approved, and the meeting was closed in prayer by Jesse Caton.

The Cape Fear Executive Committee met with the Board of Trustees of the Conference on October 16, 2001 at Lee's Chapel. Present for the meeting, Fred Baker, Roy Clifton, Sam Weeks, Phillip Boykin, Charlie Carroll, Doug and Melanie Seymour, and members of the Trustee Board, Mosbey Elmore, J.N. Bryant and Granville Denning. The moderator called the meeting to order and Rev. Sam Weeks lead the meeting in prayer.

Rev. Seymour, the pastor of Blended Fellowship Mission, was given the opportunity to review the work of the mission to the Board of Trustees. Rev. Weeks reported that $9,467.26 was given at the Camp Meeting/Revival on September 30th. A bid of $160,000 was accepted by the owners and $3,000 was needed for earnest money. A letter will be sent to all Cape Fear Churches to take up a love offering for Blended Fellowship on November 4, 2001 to help with the down payment for this property. The trustees had some questions and the committee answered them. Questions were raised about it being located in the Western Conference and why our Home Missions Department has not taken over this work. The committee stated that one of the contingencies of purchasing the property is that the Western Conference would accept and support this work as a Cape Fear Conference Mission. If this is not agreed to then the purchase will not be made and all monies returned to the mission. It is also agreed that the work be within the Western Conference but it is a Cape Fear Conference work and we accept all responsibility for the property. The Cape Fear Conference will jointly hold the deed and will have all rights to the property should the mission fold. Also the committee informed the Trustees of the attempts with Home Missions to work with this mission and no agreement has been reached.

Rev. Seymour asked for some advise in filling out the application to Home Missions he had received. The committee then advised Rev. Seymour on the questions he had about the application. The Executive Committee stated that they have followed all rules and regulations that are written in the Statement of Faith and Discipline in the work of this mission. The Executive Committee also wanted to officially state that it requests another meeting with Home Missions that was agreed upon at our last meeting. The Home Missions Board sent a letter to all Cape Fear Ministers and Churches that they have no provisions to endorse a mission outside the Home Missions Board's existing programs. The letter was sent on October 5, 2001 stopping all future discussion.

After some discussion a motion was made by Roy Clifton and seconded by Phillip Boykin to allocate $1,000 given to Blended Fellowship as a gift to the mission to help with the earnest money it needed to make the bid on the new property. The motion passed. The meeting was closed in prayer by Doug Seymour.

The Cape Fear Executive Committee met on October 22, 2001 at First Free Will Baptist Church in Smithfield. Present for the meeting, Fred Baker, Roy Clifton, Sam Weeks, Phillip Boykin, Charlie Carroll, Frank Harrison, Dean Kennedy, Doug Seymour and Rev. Donald Fader, Director of Church Finance. The Moderator called the meeting to order and Charlie Carroll lead the meeting in prayer.

The Moderator then discussed the purpose for this meeting. He stated that Blended Fellowship had a bid for the property in Goldsboro and we were meeting with Rev. Fader to see what we needed to do to secure the money needed through Church Finance. Rev. Fader stated that the church was very young, and that to this point they did not have the finances needed to make the monthly payments on a loan. He also stated that Church Finance was not like other banks and that if God's hand was in this work that they may be willing to loan the money. He asked that the Cape Fear Conference commit to helping this work for the first 3 years in making the necessary payments. He needed specific churches to commit to supporting this work.

One expense that can be lowered is the cost of membership into Church Finance. If churches in the Cape Fear Conference who hold memberships will donate them to Blended Fellowship then they would not have to pay the membership fee. Each church with memberships will have to vote to transfer their membership and the clerk from each church will need to notify Church Finance of their decision.

Rev. Fader asked that at the Cape Fear Conference meeting on November 13, 2001 that the conference vote to meet a 3 year pledge to help Blended Fellowship meet its financial obligations. After this we then need individual churches to pledge $1,200 a year in their budgets to make one months payment for them during this 3 year period. If some churches cannot make a full payment then two churches can pay half. After further discussion the meeting was closed in prayer by Dean Kennedy.

The Central Conference, being the continuation of the General Conference of Original Free Will Baptists of North Carolina, convened in its 253rd annual session with the First Free Will Baptist Church of Greenville, North Carolina, on Thursday, November 8, 2001, at 9:30 am.

The Conference opened with the hymn, "Power In The Blood." Opening scripture and prayer were offered by Mr. Michael Rowell, a licensed minister.

The Reverend Franklin Baggett, clerk, called the annual session to order. Mr. Jarvis Mills from the host church extended a cordial welcome to the Conference.

The Reverend Ray Williamson, moderator, gave a challenging address from I Corinthians 16:9. Reverend Williamson reminded the Conference of two realities. First, that we are living in perilous times. Second, that we have a great opportunity before us to share the good news of salvation through Jesus Christ with the world. We need to work together to see great things happen in the kingdom of God.

The roll of churches was called with thirty-four churches responding with delegates.

The Reverend Ray Williamson led the congregation in the singing of "All Hail The Power Of Jesus Name" followed by the offering for the conference and the offertory prayer by Reverend Walter Reynolds. Special Music was presented by Miss Melissa Creech. The Reverend Ronnie Hobgood preached the conference sermon. His text came from Acts 2:14-21; 40-47. The main emphasis and challenge of this message was redreaming the dream that God has given us. When we redream the dream four things were pointed out that will happen. First, we have a fresh out pouring of the Holy Spirit. Second, we will see the wonders of the Lord. Third, we will see the salvation of lost souls. Fourth, we shall live holy lives. The message ended with a challenge to redream the dream.

The worship service concluded with the singing of "Breathe On Me." The service closed in prayer by Reverend Carroll Bradbury.

The Reverend Ray Williamson, moderator, along with the Conference extended a welcome to membership in the conference to Reverend David Pooser, Reverend Doug Owens, and Reverend Tommy Yopp.

Report of the Conference Historian

An important milestone for the denomination in the coming year will be the celebration of the 275th anniversary of the founding of the first General Baptist/Original Free Will Baptist church in North Carolina. This church was gathered by Rev. Paul Palmer in 1727 in a small community north of Edenton in Chowan Precinct (now Chowan County). Plans are being made to commemorate this event with a tour to Edenton and to the site location of this church on Saturday, April 13, 2002. We will also visit historical sites in Edenton, an important center of colonial life in the early 1700s. We hope to make travel arrangements for all who wish to join this tour, using several church buses. If your church has a bus that can be used that day, please contact Dr. Pelt by mail or by calling 919-658-2343.

Another tour is planned for Saturday, August 24, 2002 in celebration of our denominational heritage during Heritage Month. It will focus on historical and contemporary sites in and around Ayden and will include a visit to Little Creek Church, the oldest existing Original Free Will Baptist church. Again, we plan to use church buses to facilitate transportation to these locations.

By examining our history and heritage, we want to develop greater appreciation for our denomination and its role in serving God's purposes in the world. Look for notices and articles in The Free Will Baptist during the coming year, calling attention to the above described events. We invite your participation and welcome any suggestions that will enhance the value of these experiences for all who would like to participate.

Yours in Christ,
Michael Pelt

Report of the Continuing Education Committee

The Continuing Education Committee of the Central Conference of the Original Free Will Baptist denomination has met twice this year, March 6, 2001 at Reedy Branch Free Will Baptist Church and April 2, 2001 at the Winterville Free Will Baptist Church. In each meeting, we discussed at length different possibilities for the enhancement of continuing education through seminars, training sessions, course work, and books.

1. Seminar — Dr. William Bennett

It was discussed to invite Dr. William Bennett to come and do a seminar for the conference on October 13, 2001. The seminar would include a morning and afternoon session with a lunch separating the two. The morning session will consist of a lecture by Dr. Bennett on a topic to be determined. The afternoon session will consist of a question and answer session. Daniels Chapel has extended an invitation to host the meeting and to contact a caterer for the event.

The Committee recommends to the Executive Committee this seminar to be acted upon.

2. Quarterly Seminar 2002

It was discussed about having quarterly seminars in the year 2002.

3. Book List for 2001

It was discussed developing a suggested book list for our ministers.

4. Central Conference Continuing Education Newsletter.

It was discussed developing a quarterly newsletter for continuing education in the Central Conference.

Respectfully submitted,
Reverend Joey Williams

Report of the Executive Committee

The Executive Committee of the Eastern Conference of OFWB met eight times since the seating of our last Conference. The following motions were presented and adopted:

By motion, to convene with the leadership of Bridgeton OFWB Church and discuss a solution regarding their selection of a minister and the order of said selection according to the Articles of Faith and Principles of Church Government for OFWB.

By motion, to make the following recommendation to Saints Delight OFWB: "Hold no more business meetings, do not select a pulpit committee, do not call a pastor, continue to meet regularly as usual and the Executive Committee will fill the pulpit on Sundays and Wednesday, and after prayerful study on the issue will come back to meet with Church on Sunday, April 1 at 6:00pm."

By motion, to present the following governmental solution to Saints Delight OFWB Church:

The Executive Committee will proceed with the following action –

1. To prepare a new set of Church By-Laws that will help in administrative procedures and will promote communication between ministries, auxiliaries, board, committees, and church membership, in keeping with the Articles of Faith and Principles of Church Government for OFWB.
2. To help in the selection of a Pulpit Committee and guide the church through the selection process.
3. All business and administrative meetings including Deacon Board, Trustee Board, Finance Committee, and Nominating Committee are to be cancelled until new Church By-Laws can be placed into effect.
4. Continue to work with the church in helping to supply speakers for worship services.
5. To work within the framework of existing officers of the church to implement these changes as quickly as possible.

The Reverend Craig Simmons, Moderator of the Eastern Conference, was presented as Conservator in service to Saints Delight OFWB Church.

By motion, the Executive Committee approves appointments to fill vacancies to the Board of Directors of Camp Vandemere.

By motion, the following suggestion regarding the release of Pastors from ministerial duties is to be presented to the Eastern Conference:

"When a church decides to release a Pastor from ministerial duties by waiving the 90-day stipulation but still intends to compensate the Pastor for said time, the church and the Pastor should negotiate regarding the schedule of compensation, be it weekly, bi-weekly, or monthly. Furthermore, if the Pastor continues to reside in the parsonage for the 90-day period, the same compensation offered during employment ought to apply (i.e., electrical, water, gas), unless the two parties agree otherwise."

By motion, to accept the program of the 106th Annual Seating of the Eastern Conference and nominations for select committee serving at said Conference.

Respectfully Submitted,
The Reverend Craig Simmons, Moderator
The Reverend Stephen Prescott, Clerk

7. Licensed Ministers granted privilege to work in the Eastern Conference:

8. Ministers cleared to work in the Eastern Conference:
The Reverend George Benton, of the Pee Dee Association
9. Certificate of Endorsement extension granted to:
The Reverend Gary Watson
10. The Examining Board provided the Christian Flag Ceremony at the funeral of The Reverend Ralph Sumner.
11. Churches are reminded that they are to call ministers from the list of ordained OFWB ministers. Those who are members of sister conferences must be cleared by the Eastern Conference Examining Board before being extended a call by the local congregation.
12. Ministers who did not attend the 2001 session of the Convention of Original Free Will Baptists are asked to submit letters to the Secretary of the Examining Board by November 12, 2001.
13. Eastern Conference ministers are reminded that they are required to properly register and attend the annual sessions of the Eastern Conference and the Convention of Original Free Will Baptists. Letters requesting excusal must contain the Conference registration fee (waived for retired ministers). Ministers who fail to attend two consecutive years without reasonable excuse are subject to censure and/or the revocation of their ministerial credentials.

14. We remind our churches that licensed ministers are not to hold offices in the Church or Sunday School of which they are a member so that they may have opportunity to preach and visit other churches. Licensed ministers may do short-term supply work in a church, limited to ninety days. They are encouraged to work as student ministers with experienced ministers to learn the work of the ministry. They may not officiate weddings or administer the Ordinances of the Gospel. They may preach as they have opportunity, and they may officiate funerals. The license period is a one-year term, with a five-year limit to complete the requirements for ordination. If at any time the licensed minister allows his license to lapse, the entire process must be restarted beginning with the recommendation of the local church to the Ministerial Examining Board.
15. The Eastern Conference Basic Education seminar will be held May 6-10, 2002 at Cragmont Assembly. While required for licensed ministers, others may choose to attend for fellowship, inspiration, and continuing education. Advanced seminars are available upon request by a sufficient number of registrants. Brochures are available at this Conference.
16. Concerning the 90-day stipulation for licensed ministers, the following action was taken:
Whereas, the "90-Day Rule" originated in a meeting of the Eastern Conference ministers by the Executive committee, and;
Whereas, this requirement was presented to the Eastern Conference in regular session and;
Whereas, the Eastern Conference, in session, voted to approve this requirement and;
Whereas, this requirement has served the licensed ministers well for the following reasons:
 1. The licensed minister is exposed to different forms of worship,
 2. The licensed minister is exposed to different types of tradition,
 3. Encumbrances by some churches cause the licensed minister to become slack in completing the ordination requirements,
 4. The licensed minister is exposed to different methods and levels of organization within the local church,
 5. The licensed minister becomes more widely known among the churches,
 6. The maturity level and ability to cope with certain situations in the church varies with the individual licensed minister, and
 7. The duties of the licensed minister are not to be as inclusive as those of an ordained minister, pastor, or interim,Therefore, by motion on September 27, 2001, we, the Examining Board of the Eastern Conference, reaffirm the Eastern Conference position on the "90-Day Rule" for licensed ministers.
17. The Examining Board reminds all licensed ministers who receive their license after October 19, 2001 of the requirement to attend annually at least one continuing education workshop/seminar (such as those provided by the Sunday School Board) each year they are licensed.

18. The Ministerial Examining Board meets at the Conference Office in Deep Run on the Monday following the second Sunday in the months of November, January, March, July, and September. These dates are subject to change. Individuals with business to be brought to the Board are requested to contact the secretary so that a time may be scheduled.

PROCEEDINGS

The One Hundred Thirty-Second Annual Session of the Pee Dee Association of Original Free Will Baptists of North Carolina convened at Trinity Original Free Will Baptist Church in Horry County, SC, October 20, 2001.

The session opened as the congregation sang "I Feel Like Traveling On." Due to Moderator Rev. William J. Godwin's recent heart surgery, both he and Assistant Moderator Rev. Dean Cartrette facilitated the association meeting. Rev. Godwin called the meeting to order and conducted the devotional services, taking his text from Ephesians 3:7-12, relating the terrorist attacks of September 11th to Christians' purpose, mission and effectiveness in America. Altar prayer was led by Rev. James Howard Nobles.

Rev. Henry Ward, pastor of Trinity Free Will Baptist Church, gave the welcome address, with response by Rev. Neal Harrelson.

The moderator welcomed everyone and invited visitors to enjoy the association activities but reminded them that they could not take part in any business. He announced the house in order for business.

The roll of churches was called, and all churches were represented by letter.

The roll of ministers was called, and Revs. George Benton; Wade Earl Clewis; Dewey Hilbourn; Claude Housand; Jerome Jenrette; Wade Jernigan; Tommy Martin; and Timothy Soles were absent. Petitions for excuse were given for Revs. Benton and Jenrette. Their requests were granted.

Petitionary letters were called for, and there were none.

The moderator then appointed the following committees:

Dr. Danny McPherson, trustee of Mount Olive College, reported on the state of the College, including the upcoming Pee Dee Association Mount Olive College Bridge Builders Dinner. McPherson encouraged all churches to participate in the annual drive and distributed announcements and letters to representatives from all churches. Rev. Neal Harrelson moved to accept the reports as information; motion was properly seconded and passed.

The congregation sang a hymn and collected an offering for the Children's Home. Church letters were called for and read by the clerk.

Delegates and guests were dismissed for a short recess with prayer by Rev. Dean Cartrette.

The association reassembled for the morning message. Following prayer, Rev. Henry Ward delivered the morning message. Rev. Ward began his message with recitations followed by his text from Luke 5:2-7: "When Jesus Steps Aboard".

Following the invocation, the association was dismissed for lunch.

After lunch, the association reconvened, singing "Revive Us Again." Rev. Hollan Norris led delegates and visitors in prayer.

ORDAINING COUNCIL

The council met on November 19, 2000, after receiving a letter from Oak Grove Original Free Will Baptist Church requesting that we meet with Rev. Neal Harrelson. After examining Rev. Harrelson, and upon receiving a letter from the Central Conference of South Carolina, we recommend that he be licensed in the Pee Dee Association. We gave Rev. Harrelson a new license of this date. His old license had expired due to the fact that he had not been a member of an Original Free Will Baptist Church for some time. He is now a member of Oak Grove Original Free Will Baptist Church.

The council met on January 7, 2001, after receiving a letter from Pireway Original Free Will Baptist Church announcing the call of Brother Clyde Reaves to the ministry. The council questioned Brother Reaves concerning his beliefs and found him to be sound in his faith and doctrine. The council approved him as a licensed minister for one year.

Respectfully submitted,
Rev. Hollan Norris, Chairman
Rev. Garland Suggs, Secretary

EXECUTIVE

We, your committee, report that the chairman of the Executive Committee received a letter on January 10, 2001, from the Ordaining Council requesting a joint meeting of the two groups to discuss processes and procedures for investigating issues related to ministers of the Association.

7. Credentials Revoked:

Bobby Jones

8. Approved to Pastor in the Western Conference:

Reverend John Massengill to pastor Union Grove OFWB Church
Reverend Calvin Heath to pastor Mt. Zion OFWB Church, Nash Co.

9. License Period:

There is a one-year term on the license to preach the gospel with a five-year maximum on the amount of time allowed to preach under license in preparation for ordination. If at any time the licensed minister allows the license to lapse, the entire licensing process must be restarted beginning with the recommendation of the local church to the Board of Ordination.

10. Ordination Requirements:

We recommend to our member churches and to all of our licensed ministers the attached Requirements for Ordination. This document will serve as a checklist for our licensed ministers as they move toward ordination. This document will also aid our churches in answering initial questions that a candidate might have in regards to the requirements for ordination.

REQUIREMENTS FOR ORDINATION

(A Checklist for the Licensed Minister)

A call to the Gospel Ministry is a call to grow and prepare that the Ministry may serve God's purpose. In other words, those whom God calls should make adequate preparation to live out that call. The Western Conference requires a high school diploma or its equivalent and sixty-four semester hours of college work in religion, theology and related studies. The following is a checklist for the licensed minister to use as requirements are met. A duplicate of this list is to be maintained in the candidates file and will be used to help determine that the requirements are met prior to ordination.

- ☐ Thirty-two hours of general college credits
- ☐ Thirty-two hours in the area of Bible/Ministry of which the following courses must be taken:

_____ A course in Free Will Baptist Church History

_____ A course in homiletics

_____ A course in leadership

There are certain requirements that a candidate for ordination must meet to qualify for ordination:

- ☐ The above educational requirements must be met.
- ☐ The candidate must have been a licensed minister for at least one year and not more than five.
- ☐ The candidate must submit to the board of ordination an audio and/or a video recording of a sermon preached by the candidate during the licensing period.
- ☐ The candidate must have successfully completed the Ordination Examination. This examination has a written and an oral part. The church granting the license must request that the ordaining council administer the examination. The request must be by letter signed by the pastor and clerk of the church, or the chairman of the board of deacons in the case that the church is without a pastor.
- ☐ A licensed minister may serve a church as interim for a period of six (6) months under the supervision of a watch-care supervisor assigned by the Board of Ordination. At the end of the six (6) month period, if the church wishes to extend the services of the licensed minister the church must make a request for the extension to the Board of Ordination. This rule also applies if the licensed minister is serving a church outside the bounds of the Western Conference.

11. Conference Attendance:

Any minister holding membership in the Western Conference, who fails to attend the annual session of the Conference for two consecutive years or fails to send a letter showing reasonable excuse for non-attendance, is subject to censure and/or the revocation of his credentials of ordination. We also remind all ministers working within the bounds of the Western Conference of the requirement to attend the annual session of the Conference. Failure to attend two consecutive years or failure to send a letter showing reasonable excuse for non-attendance will subject the minister to censure and/or the revocation of his credentials.

12. Annual Convention Attendance:

Any minister (licensed and ordained) holding membership in the Western Conference is required to register and attend at least one day of our annual two-day Convention of OFWBs, which meets Wednesday and Thursday following the second Sunday of September. A letter stating a reasonable excuse will also be accepted in lieu of this requirement. It may be sent either to the Clerk of the Board of Ordination or the Clerk of the Conference.

13. Ministers Transferring into the Western Conference:

A. From Sister Conferences: These ministers must be cleared with the Board of Ordination prior to assuming the pastorate to which they are called. This is the responsibility of the church calling the minister, however the minister should be sure it has been done prior to beginning the prospective work. This is a simple procedure designed to protect our churches from harm. Our churches are not independent of the Conference as is true in some other denominations and groups.

B. From other Denominations: For this information you are referred to page 89 of our Articles of Faith & Principles of Church Government.

14. The Christian Flag Service for Ministers:

The Board of Ordination will serve as the Conference Christian Flag Committee. Any minister serving in the Western Conference at the time of his death will be given the Christian Flag Service if the minister has so requested or the family so desires. The flag will be purchased by the Conference.

15. Items for Praise:

1. Our newly ordained minister
2. Our newly licensed ministers
3. Our new members by baptism or transfer into the member churches of the Conference.

16. Things a Licensed Minister Can and Cannot Do:

1. A licensed minister cannot be called or hired as pastor of any church.
2. A licensed minister can serve a church on an interim or supply basis under the supervision of his Board of Ordination Advisor or another ordained minister as directed by the Board of Ordination. This service is to be limited to six months in any one church. If the church wishes an extension on the services of the licensed minister, the church must appeal to the Board of Ordination.
3. A licensed minister cannot administer the ordinances of the Gospel.
4. A licensed minister cannot perform wedding ceremonies.

Western

5. A licensed minister can conduct worship services, preach, and teach as the opportunities are afforded to the licensed minister.
6. A licensed minister can officiate in a funeral service.
7. A licensed minister can be elected to serve as temporary chairman of a business meeting with the exceptions as outlined on pg. 74, paragraph 2 of The Articles of Faith and Principles of Church Government
8. A licensed minister can vote at the annual conference.

17. Recommendations to the Conference:

1. The newly ordained minister, the Reverends John Henry Lane, Thomas Ward, and Doug Sanders, be extended the Right Hand of Fellowship by the Moderator and their names be added to list of duly ordained ministers of the Western Conference by the Conference Clerk.

2. That the Reverend John Massengill be added to the list of ordained ministers of the Western Conference.

3. That the Reverend Jeff Scarbrough be deleted from the list of ordained ministers of the Western Conference by the Conference Clerk.

4. The newly licensed ministers, Michael Crocker, Mike Rogerson, Jerry Evans, and Gary Bisette, be added to the list of licensed ministers by the Conference Clerk.

5. That all our ministers, both ordained and licensed, continue to abide by our Ministerial Code of Ethics.

6. That our churches not call ordained or licensed ministers from other denominations to serve as interim or to do supply work.

7. That this report in its entirety be received by the Conference and that these recommendations be adopted by the Conference as submitted.

Respectfully submitted,

Your Board of Ordination: James Joyner, Chairman; Rudy Owens; Ray Wells;
Wayne King; James Rogerson; Joe Ingram;
Frank Grubbs, Clerk

PROCEEDINGS

May 10, 2001

The Seventy-fourth Annual Session of the North Carolina Woman's Auxiliary Convention of Original Free Will Baptists was held on May 10, 2001 at Shady Grove Free Will Baptist Church, Dunn, NC and hosted by the Cape Fear District Woman's Auxiliary. Registration began at 8:30 a.m. "Coffee and Conversation" was a time for questions and suggestions with the state officers and was held from 8:30 until 9:15 a.m. Karen Honeycutt, Youth Chairman from the Cape Fear District, gave the call to worship. She sang, "Each One, Reach One" and "Just A Closer Walk With Thee," both were enjoyed by all.

MEETING CALLED TO ORDER: The theme of the Convention was "Taking Jesus With You." with scripture taken from John 20:15. State President, Joan Little, called the meeting to order and shared some challenging remarks followed by a congregational song "Take the Name of Jesus With You."

DEVOTION: Sara Jones, YFA District Winner in Public Speaking, gave the devotion. Sara is a member of Hickory Chapel Church, Albemarle District. Her visual lesson of a picnic taught us that surviving on our own is futile. God wants us to need Him.

WELCOME AND RESPONSE: Jane Parker, President of the Cape Fear Woman's Auxiliary welcomed everyone to the Convention and Amy Scott, Benevolence Chairman from the Eastern District responded. Debi Fulcher, President of the Shady Grove Auxiliary made announcements.

PRESIDENT'S ADDRESS: The President gave her address focusing on our Christian image to others. We should smile more and be friendly—we represent Christ to the world. She read a devotion entitled "The Pit" illustrating how different people offered advice to the man in a pit on how he might help himself out. Jesus in turn, helped him out of the pit. There have never been any limits on God's love and we should never put limits on our love to others.

BUSINESS SESSION: President Little then opened the first business session by recognizing delegates from each district, district officers, state officers, ministers, and denominational ministry heads. She then appointed the following committees: Registration and Credentials: Carolyn Jernigan, Sandy Thick, and Jane T. Tripp. Finance: Nadine Crocker, Sara Parker and Connie Weeks. Resolutions: Agnes Corbitt, Kaye Jones and Jean Holmes.

Martha Parsons, State Youth Chairman rendered the offertory prayer and the offering was received.

LIFE MEMBERSHIP AWARD: Deborah King, of the First Free Will Baptist Church, Wilson, NC received the Life Membership Award. Becky Jo Sumner and Dianne Riley presented this on behalf of the Convention. Deborah's husband, the Reverend Wayne King, and her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Hines, were present for the presentation. A letter from Deborah's daughter, Kelly, was read in her absence.

Following a short break, the meeting reconvened with the congregation singing the auxiliary hymn "In The Service Of The King" led by Dianne Riley.

MEMORIAL SERVICE: Becky Jo Sumner introduced Charles Godwin, State Youth President, along with April and Heather McPherson, (all are Pee Dee District Officers). They presented the Memorial Service. (Youth from each district took parts of the program for the Convention.)

CONVENTION MESSAGE: Amanda Keel, President of the Albemarle Youth Convention, gave the message. She spoke from John 20:11-18 on the topic of "Taking Jesus". This is the resurrection story and Mary had come to anoint Jesus. She posed the question, "How could the woman carry the weight of a corpse?" Her faith took her there. God would work out the details. In conclusion, she read a poem entitled, "Easter Morn". All of the youth did a super job. We are proud of them and those who work with them.

DENOMINATIONAL MINISTRIES: Following the congregational hymn, "Take My Life And Let It Be", the Denominational Ministries had the following representatives present for comments: Foreign Missions, the Reverend Harold Jones; Dr. William Byrd, Mount Olive College; the Reverend Bruce Dudley, Retirement Homes and Dr. Bobby Taylor, Children's Home. The Reverend Fred Baker, Vice President of the Convention of OFWB gave interesting highlights from the Free Will Baptist Paper.

EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE MINUTES

January 20, 2001

The Executive Committee of the North Carolina Woman's Auxiliary Convention of Original Free Will Baptists met at Mount Olive College on January 20, 2001. The President, Joan Little, welcomed all officers and visitors and presented a devotion entitled "P-U-S-H, Pray Until Something Happens." She encouraged each of us and challenged us to be more obedient and to exercise our faith to its' fullest. Vice President, Carolyn Jernigan, rendered the opening prayer.

REPORTS:

Secretary's Report: Sandra Jones, Recording Secretary, read the minutes of the June 3, 2000 Executive Meeting. Motion was made by Jean Ackiss to accept the minutes as read. Motion seconded by Mamie Dail.

Cragmont: Teresa Ball reported that 241 attended the Woman's Conferences in 2000. Camp dates and speakers for 2001 are: Morning Star, April 20-22, Cynthia Mills; June 4-9, Jane C. Tripp; July 30-August 4, Jean Ackiss. There had previously been some discussion on the June week having such low attendance. Becky Jo Sumner shared reasons why the June Conference should continue as it is at the present time. The top three are as follows: (1) The June Conference is running well. (2) We are not in the moneymaking business. We are not in a loss situation. The August Week helps to pay for June Week. (3) If we were in need of another youth week, the women would graciously step aside. Following these comments, Carolyn Jernigan made the motion to approve the report of the committee. Sandra Jones seconded the motion and it carried.

Treasurer/Life Membership: Nadine Crocker, treasurer, was absent due to the recent heart attack of her husband. Her report was presented by the President. The ending balance as of December 29, 2000 is $1,292.22. Motion by Deborah King and seconded by Carolyn Jernigan to accept the report. Motion carried. The President also reported that the company that we usually order Life Membership pins from has sold out. Nadine Crocker has ordered some pins from the new company to review. Her recommendation is that we investigate other sources; because the quality of the pins is not the same standard as other pins we have given. Carolyn Jernigan and Martha Parsons offered to give her some information they have in an effort to find quality pins.

Corresponding Secretary: Mamie Dail reported that she will prepare for THE FREE WILL BAPTIST the following announcements: 75th Year Celebration, Morning Star, June and August Weeks at Cragmont and the North Carolina Woman's Auxiliary Convention.

Christian Education: Diane Riley thanked everyone for their prayers during the SACS visit to Mount Olive College and thanked God for allowing everything to turn out good from the recommendations. She further reported: (1) The 16th Annual Church Night at Mount Olive College is set for February 3, 2001. (2) The Harrison Lecture will be held on February 27, 2001. (3) Camp Vandemere is set for June 18-21.

Missions: Teresa Grubbs gave the following Foreign Missions report: Lydia and Willem van der Plas are experiencing a very harsh winter. Lydia will be going to Holland to have her hearing checked. Economically, things are very bad in the Philippines. Anil Lall will finish seminary in April. $8,400 was received for the Children's Home in Jamshedpur, Bihar, India. The World Missions Conference is February 18, with Dr. William Bennett as the guest speaker. Mission Statement of Original Free Will Baptists

(Of the English General Baptist Heritage)

The mission of the people of God called Original Free Will Baptists is to glorify God, therefore, we strive to know Christ, build His Church and make Him known to all people as we continue to seek His will. We believe this mission can be fulfilled through...

WORSHIPPING

John 4:23

“...worship the Father in spirit and in truth:...”

We commit ourselves to glorifying God by Worship, which is in the adoration of God. Worship is duly required of all His children through praise, prayer, the reading and preaching of His Word, and should inspire witness leading to discipleship. Every Christian may worship God privately; however, this should never replace the corporate worship of the church. (1)

GROWING

2 Peter 3:18

“But grow in grace, and in the knowledge of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ...”

We commit ourselves to glorifying God by moving toward maturity through learning, fellowshiping, and doing the work of ministry.

CARING

Galatians 6:10

“As we have therefore opportunity, let us do good unto all men, especially unto them who are of the household of faith.”

We commit ourselves to glorifying God by making Christ known to the world, by caring for those of the flock of God, and by demonstrating the love of God to all peoples.

SHARING

Matthew 10:8b (7-10)

“...freely ye have received, freely give.”

We commit ourselves to glorifying God by sharing what we know, what we have, and what we are, with all peoples.

EQUIPPING

Ephesians 4:12a

“For the perfecting (equipping) of the saints for the work of ministry...”

We commit ourselves to glorifying God by equipping all believers for the work of ministry. The Church, through its leadership, is to see to it that the people of God are educated, guided, and cared for that they might become spiritually mature as they do the work of ministry.
